St. James's, January 31. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to his Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Sovereign, Bailiffs, Juſtices of the Peace, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the Corporation of Charleville; preſented to his Majeſty by Bettridge Badham, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland.

An humble Addreſs of the Portreeve, Free-Burgeſſes, Commons, and Freemen of Navan; preſented to his Majeſty by Lieutenant-General Meredith, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland.

An humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen of the County of Dorſet, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held at Blandford-Forum for the ſaid County; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Angleſey.

Which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Stralſund, Jan. 18. O. S. Prince George of Heſſe-Caſſel, a General Officer in the Service of the King of Pruſſia, arrived here ſome Days ago, and 'tis ſaid will make but a ſhort ſtay. M. Poniatowski is gone from hence, on a Commiſſion from the King of Sweden, to King Staniſlaus at Deux-Ponts. The Pruſſian Garriſon in Stetin is newly reinforced, and the Commander in chief there is very diligently ſtoring the Magazines with Ammunition and Proviſions of all ſorts: The Pruſſians perſiſt likewiſe, in refuſing to let the Swedes raiſe Contributions in the Country on the other ſide of the River Pene: But 'tis hoped here, that the Landgrave of Heſſe, who ſet out from hence this Morning early for the Court of Berlin, will accommodate theſe Differences, and rectifie all Miſunderſtandings between the two Kings. Laſt Week his Swediſh Majeſty took a Review of his Troops cantoned on the Iſland of Rugen, and in the Neighbourhood of this Town; they are now in Number 14000 effective Men; Recruits are continually coming in from divers Parts, and Cavalry is expected from Sweden.

Vienna, Jan. 23. M. Prebendowski, Great Treaſurer of Poland, is arrived here with a Commiſſion from King Auguſtus; but he has not yet taken any publick Character on him, nor is the Buſineſs he is come to Negotiate yet known. M. Bentenrieder, who was Secretary to Prince Eugene of Savoy at the late Treaties of Raſtat and Baden, is made one of the Aulick Council. The Count de St. Luc is expected here from the Court of France about the middle of April, two very fine Houſes (one within the City the other without) being already hired for him. The Emperor has of late held frequent Councils, on Occaſion of the Ottoman Port's Declaration of War againſt the Republick of Venice; but not having taken a final Reſolution on that Subject, a Courier who was ſome Days ago ordered to be in readineſs to ſet our for Conſtantinople, is not yet diſpatched. M. Groothuyſen, who had reſided at the Turkiſh Court on the part of the King of Sweden, and ſeveral other Swedes who ſtopped here, ſet our from hence Yeſterday, to overtake and join the Swediſh Troops on their March.

Ratisbon. Jan. 28. On the 25th Inſtant, the Diet came to a Reſolution about the Means for ſatisfying the Publick Debts and Engagements on the Cheſt of War, and ſent it to the Emperor for his Approbation. To Day they deliberated on the Repreſentations made to them concerning the Garriſons of the States General in Liege, Huy and Bon, and reſolved to addreſs the Emperor to procure their being withdrawn from thoſe Places. On the 25th, the Adminiſtration of Bavaria, with the Towns of Ingolſtat, Donawert and Donauſtauff, were ſurrendred into the Hands of the Elector's Officers; and ſome of his Troops are advanced into the Upper Palatinate as far as Caſtel and other Places within two Hours March of Amberg the Capital, tho' the Palatines make no Motion yet to leave their Poſſeſſion; but Couriers paſs frequently between the Courts of Vienna and Duſſeldorp for regulating that Affair. The King of Sweden's Retinue and Troops which were in Turkey, continue their March through Bavaria, and are expected at Ingolſtat the 1ſt or 2d of next Month.

Hague, Feb. 5. On the 2d Inſtant the States-General received Advice from Bon, that one of their Battallions having marched thither from Luxembourg to reinforce that Garriſon, the Colonel of a Foot Regiment of the Troops of Paderborn, making part of the ſaid Garriſon, had by Order oppoſed the entring of the Dutch Battallion, which was thereupon obliged to canton without the Town. Hereupon their Highmightineſſes have diſpatched an Expreſs to the Biſhop of Munſter and Paderborn, to deſire him to revoke his ſaid Order, to the end that Battallion may be admitted into Bon. Mr. Cadogan, the Britiſh Envoy and Mr. Horatio Walpole, having ſince the 1ſt Inſtant had frequent Conferences with the Deputies of the States-General on the Affair of the Barrier, Mr. Cadogan ſet out
